

Dror Apfeldorf

Partner

Practice Areas

Litigation, Administrative law, Tenders, Class Actions, Transportation

Education

Haifa University LL.B., (2006)

Haifa University LL.M.

Dror Apfeldorf is a Partner at Salomon Lipschutz & Co. and a member of the Litigation and Dispute Resolution Department, the Department of Administrative Law and Tender Law, the Class Actions Department, and the Transportation Department at Salomon Lipschutz & Co..

Dror provides ongoing legal advice and assistance in the field of commercial and civil litigation, corporate representation, representation of commercial and private clients in administrative petitions, tender matters, class actions and various legal issues related to client needs and customer needs.

Dror began his professional career as a military prosecutor and shortly before becoming a senior prosecutor in the military prosecutor's office, accompanied criminal investigations and managed complex legal cases. In 2012, Dror was appointed Legal Adviser to the IDF Employees' Employment Center and provided ongoing legal advice in the field of labor law and administrative law to the Commander of the IDF Employees' Employment Center.

In 2014, Dror was appointed head of the Operations Division (with the rank of Major) in the International Law Department of the Military Prosecutor's Office, and

Tel. 04-8140500

Dror.a@ysl-law.com

Fax. 04-8557038

1 Natanzon St., Haifa 3303473

in this context he was entrusted with providing legal advice in international law to senior IDF officials.

Dror was elected Outstanding Champion in 2012 on behalf of the Chief Military Advocate.

Dror is also certified as a mediator on behalf of the 'Backs' group.

Prior to being certified as an attorney in 2007, Dror specialized in the prosecution department of the Military Prosecutor's Office.

Dror joined as Partner in 2021.

Tel. 04-8140500

Dror.a@ysl-law.com

Fax. 04-8557038

1 Natanzon St., Haifa 3303473

