

For developers and real estate investors to complete their ambitious projects, the need for the most informed, up-to-date and cutting edge advice on Planning and Construction law is paramount. Salomon Lipschütz & Co. is your adviser.

As one of the most seasoned law firms in Israel, YSL's Real Estate department comprises lawyers hugely qualified in the planning, licensing and construction issues affecting commercial, residential and urban renewal projects throughout the country, as well as residential apartments, public institutions and educational institutions, tourism infrastructure and transportation development.

Our Planning and Construction team commands the trust and respect of many major corporates, real estate purchasing groups, developers, such as Shikun & Binui, who rely on our knowledge of these laws to drive their projects to competition.

From the very start of a project, we advise on planning issues, analyze existing zoning plans and helping clients to make informed decisions regarding the acquisitions of property and to overcome any challenges in dealing with the relevant planning authorities.

Should contentious issues arise, we draw on our vast experience in representing our clients in proceedings concerning expropriation, loss of assets value and land improvement assessments, as well as in all kinds of municipal and governmental tribunals in relation to construction laws, as well as before local zoning committees, district committees, appellate committees, the Administrative Court and the Supreme Court.
