

With increasing competition in the sector, regulatory burdens and an uncertain global economy, there is a range of pressing challenges facing major banks, domestic and international. Clients demand advisers with a successful track record in relation to complex loans and financial transactions, high-stakes litigation and insolvencies. Banking & Finance team at Salomon Lipschütz & Co., run by Adv. Yaacov Ribanowitz is your adviser.

As one of the most seasoned law firms in the Israeli market, YSL's Banking Law Department works closely with senior management in major domestic and international banks on negotiating financial transactions, loans, mortgages and other liens, as well as any legal proceedings, including high-stakes commercial lawsuits for clients such as Leumi Group, winning many groundbreaking decisions that have set precedents and led to changes in banking legislation as well as in other industries.

Banking and financial institution clients have also come to implicitly trust our advice on all matters concerning bankruptcy, liquidation, insolvency, receivership, debt settlement and writs of execution, as well as the realization of their rights in various real estate issues, including grand-scale construction projects. Such is our experience that Israeli Courts regularly appoint our attorneys as receivers, trustees and court officials. Furthermore, we also have a unique specialization in insolvency lawsuits, taken against special debtors, such as local government and cooperatives - Kibbutzim and Moshavim.

Our unswerving dedication to the sector has led to our attorneys becoming among the most experienced professionals in the Israeli market, with a deep understanding of the rules, regulations, decrees and common practices, which regulate Israel's finance and banking markets, advising clients such as Discount Bank, Union Bank and The Association of Banks in Israel on issues of compliance and management of legal risks.
