

Many of us, as human beings, refrain from discussing inheritances and Wills for the natural fear of losing our relatives and loved ones. However, to avoid future disputes and frictions among family members and successors, it is advisable and recommended to put things in order ahead of time. Inheritance Law team at Salomon Lipschutz & Co., run by Adv. Noam Bar David, is your adviser.

The team of lawyers in our firm holds many years of experience and extensive knowledge. We are ready and prepared to provide our clients with legal services relating to the Law of Succession, including complex legal issues, while paying careful attention to the emotional difficulties which are likely to be involved in handling such matters, ensuring a personal response, individual escort and quick and businesslike treatment.

Our clients benefit from advice and assistance in early planning where the entire array of available legal tools and solutions are presented to ensure that the wishes of the deceased are fulfilled, taking complex family situations into consideration. Our assistance also includes materialization of various assets and rights such as registration of real estate properties according to the Inheritance Order or the Probate.

The areas relating to the Law of Succession our firm is engaged in are as follows:

- Managing complex claims and disputes among heirs
- Drawing up Wills under the Law of Succession
- Drawing up agreements between heirs
- Submission of applications for Inheritance Orders and Probates
- Objection to probates
- Management of estates
- Opinions in matters relating to the Inheritance Law
- Drawing up Enduring Power of Attorney

Stay in touch:

Noam Bar David \ 04-8140500 \ noamb@ysl-law.com